VOLUME 51

NEW YORK

1957-1958

INDEX TO VOLUME LI

OCTOBER 1957 — MAY 1958

The present Index, following in general the plan in use since Volume XLVII (1953-54), exhibits separately (I) Contributors; (II) Contents, arranged with reference to the main types of material appearing in this periodical (Articles, etc.; Reviews; Notes and News; Books Received); (III) Subject Index, in which an attempt has been made to classify this material according to the divisions employed in the standard annual bibliography of classical studies, J. Marouzeau and J. Ernst, L'Année Philologique (latest issue Vol. XXVII [bibliography of 1956]; Paris: Les Belles Lettres, 1957); IV Advertisers.

Certain conventions, e.g., in II. 2 (Book Reviews) and in III (Subject Index), that of indicating reviewers by enclosing their names in parentheses immediately after the designation of books reviewed, will be familiar from earlier volumes.

The Editor takes the opportunity to thank his staff and contributors, in particular Prof. Feldman and Mr. Kizner for their Herculean labors in stabilizing the financial and circulation bases of our enterprise, the officers, Executive Committee, and members of CAAS, and the officers of Fordham University for many kindnesses.

To Our Readers . . .

The past year, our 51st, has brought us the largest increase in circulation in our history — some 40%, to approximately 1750. We are sincerely grateful to you, our readers, for your loyalty, and we respectfully urge you to renew your subscriptions now for Volume 52 (1958-59).

During the coming year, THE CLASSICAL WORLD will continue to offer, in its eight monthly 32-page issues (October through May), besides other articles and notes of general classical and humanistic interest:

- Its annual classified list, critically evaluated (with prices), of Audio-Visual Aids for the teaching of the Classics, plus regular supplements. (This is the only such list available.)
- Its annual classified, up-to-date list (with prices) of Inexpensive Books — paperbacks and others — for teaching the Classics in translation and for background reading.
- Its annual list of Latin and Greek Textbooks in print (with prices).
- Its Surveys of recent work in the various fields of classical scholarship and teaching (21 published to date). During the past year we have featured Cicero, Aristotle, and Vergil.
- "In the Journals" — monthly summaries of articles in other journals — particularly those not readily accessible and those not primarily devoted to the Classics — which we feel should be of special interest to classicists.
- Brief, critical, informative Book Reviews of the more important new classical publications.
- Monthly annotated lists of other new classical books.
- Notes and News.

To these established features we are adding in Volume 52:

- Monthly summaries of "Classics in the News" — items of classical interest from newspapers, popular magazines, and press releases during the preceding month.
- Monthly summaries of recent news in the world of Classical Archaeology.
- Articles and Notes on Methods employed in various schools and colleges to increase interest and enrollment in the Classics.
- Articles in which recognized authorities will present non-technical Introductions to their specialties.
- Monthly listings, critically evaluated where possible, of motion pictures of interest to teachers and students of the Classics, together with advance notices of forthcoming radio and TV programs and stage plays with classical themes.
- Monthly Calendar of meetings and other coming events.

We sincerely hope that you have found THE CLASSICAL WORLD of value, and that you will fill out the subscription blank below now. These special rates apply only to individuals who live in the United States, Ontario or British Columbia; they do not apply to institutions or libraries or individuals living elsewhere in Canada or abroad; the latter should send $3.75 ($4.25 for those living abroad) for renewal of THE CLASSICAL WORLD to Prof. F.
